125th Anniversary of Father McGivney's Founding of the Knights of Columbus

From The Grand Knights Desk,

Brothers,

With Easter around the corner I would like to share with you a telling Easter Story by Glenn Beck. He recites it every year on Good Friday. I found it skillfully done with imparting to the listener a sense of the commitment of Jesus to His Fathers will in the midst of the human weakness of many of His followers. Although there is no way of knowing, each year I listen I find myself asking the same question; "What would I do if I were there?"

Here is the link; I hope you find yourself in awe at the power of it all.

Thanks and Happy Easter,

Tom

P.S. Please don't forget our Palm Sunday Breakfast (April 5th) and our Flea Market (April 18th). There is much work setting up, running and braking down. Wives and kids are welcome to help too. Many hands make little work.
